

MANITOWISH WATERS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

There's so much to do in Manitowish Waters, including exploring and interacting with our rich history...our early Native American heritage, the logging drives, the railroads, fishing, cranberry bogs and so much more! Find out what's in us for you!

Our Mission

The collection, preservation, and dissemination of materials and information relating to the history of Manitowish Waters

What We Do

The MWHs fulfill its Mission in a variety of ways. We share our rich history through our website, our online collections, and database, our newsletters, our YouTube Channel, podcasts, pontoon tours, canoe trips, hikes, talks, special events and our Jeopardy Fun Nights!

Activities for You and Your Family

Here are some of the fun learning activities that we sponsor or co-sponsor with our partners.

Always check for our latest events at:
<https://www.mwhistory.org/events/>

Visit the Frank B. Koller Library

Koller Library and the Manitowish Waters Historical Society have formed an alliance to make the history of Manitowish Waters accessible to the public. The library has lots of photos and materials available to the public.

Hikes/Walks

Join our historians and naturalists as they explore local forests, logging camps and trails, including historic ventures back in time to the Civilian Conservation Corps.

History Talks

Looking for something less active? Our historians share accounts on all aspects of our history. Whether we're at Koller Library, one of our pristine parks or our other outstanding venues, their stories will have you feeling like you're sitting around the campfire again!

Canoe and Kayak Trips

Explore our waters with our historians/ guides and learn about our Native American residents, our logging drives, local estates, resorts, and more!

Jeopardy Fun Nights

Test your knowledge and learn our history in a fun format. And, remember, please answer in the form of a question!

Pontoon Tours

Want to know what really happened with Dillinger's escape at Little Bohemia? Want to learn about the history of our beautiful chain of lakes and neighboring waters? Take a boat ride with our historians on a tour to the past.
